

Employee of the Quarter

Ruth Garcia

Senior Clerk, Breast & Cervical Cancer Program

This employee explores innovative ways to assist clients who qualify for the program but at times have difficulty accessing services. She is well known in the community and has an excellent relationship with local partners. In addition is very aware of program guidelines and uses these to the advantage of the clients to meet the needs of those who are facing the greatest health challenge requiring assistance that go beyond program resources. Her kindness, compassion and talents are ongoing and consistently recognized by clients.

Ruth is our face of Public Health!
