

Blue-Green Algae Alert Process

This process is optional if toxin results are available. Monitoring of algae report data will be done by the Bureau of Environmental Health (BEH). Posting and removal of alerts will be done by the impacted County Health Department (CHD). In addition to the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), data from other sampling entities may also be evaluated by BEH when monitoring bloom locations.

